

Creative hand in marriage proposals

In order to qualify for this event, the public had to submit ideas for the most creative marriage proposal. Shortlisted candidates were then invited to a preview screening of the Sandra Bullock movie The Proposal in the newly-opened GSC Tropicana City.

Grand prize winner Hanson C'hng (right, far right), who creatively conveyed his love to fiancée Catherine via sign language, walked home with prizes worth over RM15,000, including a specially-designed bridal gown by Carven Ong (worth RM5,800), a two-day one-night stay in Le Meridien Kuala Lumpur's Penthouse Suit, buffet dinner for two at Latest Recipe in Le Meridien Kuala Lumpur, a Salvatore Ferragamo fragrance set and a Covershots Bridal photography session.

Each of these two couples won an evening gown by Carven Ong and prizes by Le Meridien Kuala Lumpur, Salvatore Ferragamo and Covershots.

Best-dressed couple of the day, Muhammad Syarzil and Nurain, walked home with a special prize worth RM2,000.

All the participants were rewarded with a Love Pack worth RM1,380, sponsored by Carven Ong, Salvatore Ferragamo Incanto Bliss fragrance, Le Meridien Kuala Lumpur, Golden Screen Cinemas Chocolate Chapters, Cacao Rich, Covershots and One Red Lily.
